

Bio: Daniel Stuebs, Executive Director | American Police Officers Alliance

Daniel Stuebs is the Executive Director and Treasurer of the Board of Directors at American Police Officers Alliance. Stuebs is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and prior to working for American Police Officers Alliance, he assisted in the management of fundraising for state senate and legislative campaigns throughout Wisconsin.

Stuebs believes the relationship between law enforcement and the general public needs to be repaired and he's on a mission to help make that happen. He speaks with his friends in law enforcement regularly and continues to hear too many stories about the public responding negatively to police.
